

Bangor

Bangor was founded as a gold mining camp in 1855 by miners from Bagor, Maine and named for the city of their origin. The camp was noted for its extensive gravel deposits.