

Nelson

This section 5 miles south of Durham was surveyed as a town by the California and Oregon Railroad in 1873. It was situated on railroad land, and named after Captain A.D. Nelson, a local wheat farmer, who was born in New York 1812, and came to California in 1859.