

Rich Gulch

This was the original name of Yankee Hill, and likewise of a part of the mining district of Michigan Flat. Moreover, there were two other mining sites with this name during gold days in California, which now have disappeared from the map. One was a camp on the Mokelumne in the vicinity of Murphys; the other a settlement of the early 1850's near Frogtown in the Yreka region.