

Toadtown. (Formerly Allentown)

There is little historical data available. It is a small populated area 7.2 miles northeast of Paradise and southwest of Lovelock. Toadtown Way on the West and Allentown Road on the East both intersect Skyway. It may have been a mining venture during the gold rush or a timber harvesting area. It is heavily forested and there are several buildings on either side of Skyway.