

Yankee Hill

Yankee Hill was settled in 1850 and first known as Rich Gulch. With the invasion of Spanish and Chilean miners in the middle 1850's this gold camp became known as Spanishtown. When New Englanders succeeded the Latins, the community assumed the name it now bears.