Be Humble

Poet: Collen Vertz

While walking through the woods one day
When the leaves were red and brown,
I heard a little bright tree
say,
"Just look at my crimson gown."

She swished her gown so proudly, Bright yellow, red, and brown.
A tree not quite so colorful said,
"Be humble; God made your gown."

Thank you all for your support and for your interest in the Paradise Genealogical Society and the history of Butte County!

Membership Meeting on Thursday, September 15th, at our new Library, 1499 Wagstaff, Paradise.

Our Speaker was Larry Mauch who gave a brief and very informative history of Ophir becoming Oroville and the county seat in the early 1850's and 1860's and the early history of Oroville's two Chinatowns during that same period.

For those of you who use Ancestry – and that would be most of us – take a look at this...
